Executive Living with Loads of Privacy

This gorgeous low set home is a must to behold and is just begging for the right people to come along and make it theirs. Consisting of 4 large bedrooms, a huge study, a separate lounge room with AC, a combined dining and living room with AC, this house has plenty of room for you to spread out. The well equipped kitchen with all the modern appliances you could hope for and a walk in pantry larger than some people's bedrooms, allows you to overlook the family as they enjoy the spacious living area while also taking in the beautiful rural views surrounding the house. The main bathroom is comfortable and roomy while the ensuite and walk in robe off the enormous main bedroom is absolute luxury. With full security screening on every door and window, you wouldn't need the multiple AC units to keep you cool on a hot day. Car parking is not a problem either - a double garage attached to the house plus a huge triple shed allows you to get your metal babies out of the weather.

The house yard is fenced but isn't dog proof so if you have a fur baby, you will need to creat a pen or install wire over the existing metal fence post and rails.

Outside pets allowed upon application. 2 large water tanks - tenants responsibility to keep filled. Bio-cycle system.

Don't miss your chance to rent this beautiful home. It is not going to last long!
