

37 Laidley St, Helidon

Large Family Home

Only a short drive from Toowoomba, you'll find this cozy, split level property. From the moment you step foot inside you'll feel like you're right at home. As you walk through you'll see three built-in bedrooms with traditional French doors and windows.

This large sized property also boasts two large living areas, one on each level, potentially separating the adults from the kids! The high ceilings are an excellent feature of this property, making it feel as though there is an abundance of space around you!

Flowing out to the backyard, you'll find the perfectly positioned deck showcasing spectacular views of the Lockyer Valley as well as Toowoomba. The large sized deck over-looking the backyard is perfect for hosting friends and family, all while keeping an eye on the kids.

This fully fenced property is perfect for animal lovers, giving your furry friends plenty of room to run around on the large 1,518m² block. As you make your way downstairs you'll appreciate the large living area, which flows onto the fourth bedroom, perfect for a kids retreat.

This property is finished off perfectly with the addition of the incredibly large four bay garage shed as well as two car spaces under the house. The shed comes fully powered and finished with a concrete driveway. Other fantastic additions to this property include access to both town and rain water, an electric hot water system
